

We would like New Jersey's 'Do Not Call" left intact even though it is supposedly more stringent than the federal program. Under the current law, we still get several solicitation calls a week that we must instruct not to call again. Thanks for your consideration. Susan & Joe